Thrusting a Blank Shret Amon Documents to Be Signed When the Aged Millionaire Was "Dopes" - Wethernee Didn't Tell Rice, but, After a Month, Consulted a Lawyer, When the examination of Albert T. Patrick and Charles F. Jones on the charge of forging was resumed before Magistrate Brann in the Centre street police court yesterday morning, Walter O. Wetherbee, chief clerk for the banking house of S. M. Swenson & Sons, was questioned about a proposition which, it is alleged, Jones made to him that, if the latter would prepare what purported to be the last will of William M. Rice, making himself executor, Jones would for a satisfactory consideration see that the will was signed. Wetherbee said that this proposition was made in January, 1900, at Wetherbee's house in Brooklyn. According to Wetherbee, Jones told him that Rice had told him, Jones, that Wetherbee had stole from the strong box of Rice in the vaults of Swenson & Sons a $1,000 railroad bond. Having mparted this information, Jones made the proposition about the will, saying that two day he reported the conversation to his employers, subsequently consulted lawyers, and then made affidavit to the occurrences.

The telling of this story substantially concluded the direct examination of the witness. Those who heard the new parts of it were struck with the fact that some of the stipulations alleged to have been made by Jones to Wetherbee were carried out in part, at least, in the alleged will of Rice, in which Patrick was named as residuary leaster. In that will, if the documents given out were copies of it, Albert T. Patricks name appears as one of the three executors, instead of Judge Bartine's and A. H. Cohn is remembered to the extent of $5,000.

ATTACKED DIRECTOR BROOKER. Clarence Deming Makes a Scene at the New

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 17 .- During the election of directors at the annual meeting to-day of the stockholders of the New York and New Haven Railroad Clarence Deming of this city made an attack on one of the candidates, Charles Brooker of Ansonia, Conn. The latter is the present Connecticut member of the National Republican Committee, the organizer of the Brass Trust and one of the directors tional Republican Committee, the organizer of the Brass Trust and one of the drectors of the American Ordnance Company of Bridgeport. He has been a director of the New Haven road since 1892. Mr. Deming did not mention his name, but there was no doubt as to whom he meant. Mr. Deming said:

"At a very recent session of the State Legislature, an attack was made by the organized lobby upon this corporation. When that contest was in progress a director of this company, sitting. If I remember aright, in this very room, denounced to me that lobby, its works, and its chief. Since then, that director has entered politics, and indirectly, if not directly, has received from that same lobby group, a high political office. I cannot, either as citizen or as stockholder, vote for that man as a director, and I conceive it to be my plain duty to substitute for his name that of an honored citizen of New Haven, who so far from having been the beneficary of the most pernicious political ring which has ever infested this State, has been on at least one occasion its victim. I desire my act to be construed chiefly as a protest against a mercenary and progressive lobby, which has held this State and this corporation virtually under blackmail, and is looking for new and more vicious triand this corporation virtually under blackmail, and is looking for new and more vicious tri-chicago gas war had been effected at 8 o'clock yesterday morning at a conference at the Holland House. The settlement was something else than a will, and then turn the signed blank sheet of paper over to Wetherbee to fill out in the form of a will. Jones proposed, the witness stated, that the text of a former will (the one already offered for probate) should be followed, except that, in the place of John D. Bartine of Somerville, N. Jone of the executors, Wetherbee should insert his own name, and with the other exception that an employee of Rice in Texas, named A. H. Cohn, should receive a bequest of $25,000. Wetherbee said that he told Jones he couldn't entertain any such proposition, and the next day he reported the conversation to his employers, subsequently consulted lawyers, and then made affidavit to the occurrences.

Pittsburg Attorneys Want Some of the Profit of a Traction Stock Deal. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17 .- A suit for heavy damages has been brought against Drexel & Co. by Whitney & Stephenson, attorneys of Pittsburg. It grows out of the consolidation Pittsburg. It grows out of the consolidation of the Pittsburg traction companies.

The bill alleges that in order to prevent the plaintiffs from securing control of 28,500 shares of stock on which they held an option at $50 a share Drexel & Co. unlawfully transferred the stock to William L. Elkins, P. A. B. Widener, and others. The market price of the stock being $90 at the time, the plaintiffs say they lost profits of $2,920,320 which were through the banking firm's action diverted in part as follows: W. L. Elkins, $307,950; P. A. B. Widener, $293,300; George W. Elkins, $25,800; Joshua Rhodes, $30,000; William Flynn, $60,000; M. K. McMullin, $44,070; Drexel & Co., $662,500.

circumstance confirmed the view that the sudden and brisk demand for securities on Monday induced a good deal of profit-taking by speculative holders. One of the features of the dealings was heavy selling by a speculative interest that has been operating upon the long side of the market for several months past and which apparently thought it wise to reduce its holdings now there is a fairly large actual demand for stocks. NEW YORK CITY, ON OR BEFORE OCTOBER | The expression of confidence early in the week has unquestionably encouraged a number of substantial interests to take their favorite stocks in hand and this made to-day's dealings in various apecialties a feature of the market, Among the stocks of that class that received attention were Southern Railway issues, United States Rubber, Consolidated Gas, Anaconda Mining, Wheeling and Lake Erle second preferred, New York, Chicago and St.

Louis issues and flocking Valley. All of these closed materially higher than yesterday. In the usually active issues People's Gas was most conspicuous because of the authoritative announcement of the settlement of the gas rate war in Chicago. At a reaction of 1% per cent from the highest prices it closed 11's points higher than yesterday. The trading in it was heavy and at times the fluctuations were very rapid. The news of the settlement of the anthracite coal strike, consisting of formal notices by the Reading and Lehigh Valley companies and by a number of the individual operators of their acceptance of the terms of the miners did not stimulate speculation as a whole, but resulted in moderate trading in Reading first preferred and Jersey Central at comparatively slight advances. The local demonstration of the Populist party last night had no effect whatever upon speculative sentiment. There were no further engagements of gold abroad for shipment to this country, but the Sub-Treasury paid out over $800,000 on account of gold received at Pacific Coast points. The deposits of currency for transfer to the interior through the Sub-Treasury were only $150,000. The operations between the Clearing House banks and the Sub-Treasury so far this week indicate that the statement of averages at the end of the week will make a radically different showing from those of last Saturday and the week before. In the final dealings on the Stock Exchange the professional element endeavored to depress prices, being influenced by the evidence of liquidation of speculative holdings during the early part of the week The closing was, therefore, comparatively heavy. New York Stock Exchange-Sales Oct. 17. CLOSING PRICES OF UNITED STATES BONDS. Bil. Asked. Bil. Asked.
